

Battery Replacement On Demand

Giving you the power to proceed

Batteries that can't hold their charge or fail can easily slow down an entire team's workflow. But they're not easy to replace, as many business laptops have sealed batteries.

With dynabook's Battery Replacement On Demand Service, you never need to worry about high battery costs or finding a repair solution. When you have a defective battery and there is no warranty that applies, dynabook will cover the repair and labour from authorised engineers who use original service parts. Simply purchase this On Demand Service when you need it to keep your business functioning.
